Tasting Notes	Just prior to bottling our primary chardonnay we made a game-time decision to select 3 barrels that we felt stood out showing more exotic flavors and a denser mouth feel. Since it was a game-time decision, literally days before the chard bottling run, the glass was printed. Therefore, aside from the content of the bottle the only point that distinguishes the wine from our primary Chardonnay is the red wax drop on the cork with which we finish our Reserve wines. Notes of peach pie, honey, citrus, and orange blossom fill the glass and are accompanied by lightly creamy vanilla, white peach, caramel and melon on the palate.
